

PRESS RELEASE

Campari's board approves third-quarter results as of 30 September 2001

Milan, 13 November 2001 – The Board of Directors of Davide Campari-Milano S.p.A. has approved the Group's consolidated results as of 30 September 2001, which show an overall positive performance.

In the first nine months:

- net consolidated revenues were Euro 347.3 million, with an increase of 8.2%;
- trading margin grew by 2.9% to Euro 88.9 million;
- EBITDA before non-recurring expenses was up 3.8% to Euro 77.3 million.

Milan, 13 November 2001 – In the first nine months the Group's consolidated sales net of discounts and excise duties were Euro 347.3 million, with an increase of 8.2%, mainly attributable to the integration of the Brazilian business acquired in January 2001, which generated sales of Euro 25.6 million, in line with projections.

Organic growth was 0.8%, due to a deferral of sales occurred in the second half of September. In fact, the tragic events of September 11th do not yet seem to have had a significant negative impact on consumption (although that may not be excluded in the future, especially if the current climate of fear and uncertainty due to the political and economic international crisis were to persist) but they caused an understandable wave among the Group's trade partners, who reacted by postponing planned purchases with a resulting reduction of stock levels in the distribution chain.

Exchange currency movements, and particularly the devaluation of the Brazilian real with respect to the Euro, reduced net sales by 0.8%.

Sales growth was led by the spirits division, with an increase of 15.9% in the first nine months. Of this growth, 14.2% was attributable to the Brazilian acquisition, while 1.7% represented organic growth, already net of adverse exchange-rate effects. Among the top performers in the Group's portfolio, it is worth mentioning the good results achieved by the Campari brand in the Italian market, with growth of 6.7% in the first nine months, which however did not fully offset the slowdown in the German and Brazilian markets. In the latter the strong depreciation of the local currency and the economic crisis penalise highly priced brands like Campari, while they favour other more accessibly priced products in the Group's portfolio like Dreher, Old Eight and Drury's.

The wines segment performance, represented mainly by Cinzano, was negatively affected by a number of customer-service related issues arising from difficulties in managing a still outsourced production and by tougher competition in some markets. Cinzano sparkling wines, however, continued to achieve higher than expected growth in the key German market, with an increase of 11.3% over the first nine months of 2000.

Sales in the soft drinks portfolio were broadly in line with the previous year, although it is worth noting the strong growth of Crodino (by far the most profitable Group's brand in this division), whose sales increased by 3.3% in the first nine months.

The following chart outlines the Group's sales performance by division.

In the first nine months of 2001, the Group's trading margin was Euro 88.9 million, representing 25.6% of net sales and growing by 2.9%.

EBITDA and EBIT before non-recurring expenses were, respectively, Euro 77.3 million (22.3% of net sales) and Euro 58.5 million (16.8% of net sales).

Income before taxes was Euro 55.8 million, 16.1% of net sales, lower than the corresponding period of last year (Euro 68.4 million) due to lower capital gains on non core real-estate asset disposals and an exchange-rate loss which, although markedly improved with respect to 30 June 2001, amounted to Euro 1.6 million, at the end of the third quarter. But the most relevant impact came from the costs related to the Group's listing in July 2001, which, although entirely reported in the first-half results, have the effect of depressing profits for the first three quarters when compared with the corresponding period of the previous year.

At 30 September 2001 the Group's net financial position, excluding own shares purchased in the third quarter as part of a stock-option scheme with a total value of Euro 31 million, was Euro 88.4 million, compared with Euro 74.7 million at 30 June 2001.
